Getting into the Swing of Things

Dear Teaching Staff & FIRE Crew Leaders,

Please take time this week during the FIRE advisory period to reiterate and reinforce the tone, boundaries, guidelines and expectations for behavior, discipline, work ethic and relationships with your assigned FIRE students.

1. Take attendance
2. Use assigned seating
3. Check and sign completed agendas
4. Use passes for travel
5. Expect assignments out & in progress
6. Limit pod use
7. Actively supervise
8. Encourage positive interaction
9. Nip discipline issues in the bud

If you need assistance, please contact Conni @ 1104 or Katie @ 1607 ASAP. Best of luck!!!

Help Develop Assets in Your Students

Empowerment (external asset)

Young people need to feel valued and valuable. This happens when youth feel safe and respected.

What can you do daily as a FIRE leader to make your FIRE advisory students feel empowered? List three, then please DO consistently!

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Positive Values (internal asset)

Young people need to develop strong guiding values or principles to help them make healthy life choices.

As a FIRE leader, you can help inspire your FIRE students. List your three most important positive personal values or principles. Think about how you demonstrate those values on campus. Share your experiences with your students! Have students share back, if willing!
