

Name: _____
Date: _____ Per: _____

Textbook Scavenger Hunt: The Americans

Use the textbook to answer the following. Much of this information can be found in the first few pages of the book and the last few pages of the book. Some of these items are not in the index and will require you to look through the sections.

1. What is the title Chapter 10 ? _____
2. Question 2 in most section assessments asks you to: _____
3. Chapter 19 Section 2 starts on page? _____
4. In the year 1900 how many people lived in the United States? _____
5. List the 21st through the 25th president:

21st: _____
22nd: _____
23rd: _____
24th: _____
25th: _____

6. List two U.S. Dependencies or Areas of special sovereignty:
_____ & _____
7. The place with the highest elevation in the United States is located in the state of : _____
8. How many sections is the Economics handbook divided into?
9. List 3 of these sections: _____,
_____ & _____
12. What is the "main idea" in Chapter 6 Section2: _____

Name: _____

Date: _____ Per: _____

13. The glossary has an _____ border and provides _____

14. The index has an _____ border and provides _____

15. List 3 places section terms can be found within a chapter:

16. On average how many pages are each section: _____

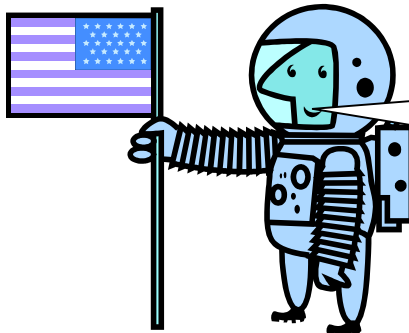

17. What page does the prologue start on? _____

18. List all of the authors of this book: _____

19. The copyright date for this book is: _____

20. Look through all of the chapters. Which do you find most interesting and why? _____

There is a prize for the first 3 people to finish their scavenger hunt correctly!